BRYAN PYTHIAN KNIGHTS ENTERTAIN NAVASOTANS

Solemn Ceremonies, Tragic Scenes, Fraternal Jokes and Eloquent Addresses Mark the Events of Tuesday Evening at Castle Hall

Probably one of the most impressive ceremonies ever given by Brazos Lodge No. 64 Knights of Pythias of Bryan in its history, took place at Castle Hall on Tuesday evening from 8 to 12 o'clock. The occasion and scene was especially set for a visitation of a delegation of Brazos Lodge No. 64 Knights of Pythias of Navasota. The young men receiving the degrees of Knighthood were Morgan and Lonnie Locke. The Degree Team of Brazos lodge is one of the most prominent in the jurisdiction and is as follows: R. M. Walker, king; George Pletzer and L. B. Maddox, attendants; Guy F. Boyett, herald; Ome Parks, headman. Senators: Jno. M. Caldwell, J. M. Bullock, Tom G. Suber, C. S. Beckwith, J. E. Gammon, J. H. Hall, Chas. G. Wetter and M. M. Erskine. The team was assisted by Knight Jno. D. Mann, of Navasota, a former citizen of Bryan. The team was in full regalia for the ceremonies. The officers of Brazos Lodge are: M. M. Erskine, C. C.; Guy F. Boyett, V. C.; L. P. Skinner, relate; Oak McKenzie, M. of W.; C. S. Beckwith, K. of R. S.; Joe B. Reed, M. of F.; H. S. Locke, M. of E.; Pat Newton, M. of A.; Tom G. Suber, I. G., and J. F. Griffin, O. G.

Chancellor Commander M. M. Erskine called Mr. Lee J. Rountree to extend welcome to the visiting brethren from Navasota. Mr. Rountree said: "In this universal day of fraternalism it is hardly necessary to extend formal welcome to Pythian Knights within the chambers of any Castle Hall in the English speaking world. The sun never sets on the sessions of the Knights of Pythias for they extend around the world. Their service and ceremonies are universal and are the foundation of fraternity and patriotism. Loyalty to that flag of our country; faithful to God's immutable laws and steadfast in the eternal principles of world-wide fraternity is our order and in its glorious name and unsullied record in war and in peace extend fraternal greetings and cordial welcome to our honored guests from Navasota." In response M. C. E. Gilleland, of Navasota, eloquently replied to the words of welcome and said that what he wished to express was for the Bryan Knights to come to Navasota to accept the hospitalities of the lodge. Mr. Gilleland was sure that there was a broader spirit of fraternalism in the world since the war and that Bryan and Navasota were bound by stronger ties than ever. His remarks were applauded.

Hon. Oak McKenzie paid a glowing tribute to the fraternal spirit now pervading the Bryan and Navasota Lodges. He said he had visited the Castle Hall at Navasota and was given the warmest greeting. He said: "The best, truest men I know are members of the order here and at Navasota and I feel proud of the fact that we can hold these wonderful meetings." Mr. McKenzie urged all the visitors to come back again and was applauded.

Rev. H. C. Willis, pastor of the Methodist church, responded saying that this was his first visit to Brazos Lodge and that he was enjoying it thoroughly. Rev. Willis complimented the lodge on its splendid record and gave a few timely illustrations amid laughter and applause. In replying to Rev. Willis' remarks Mr. George E. Hadley opened by saying that he was due in Washington at the time to speak before Webster Lodge K. of P. of which he was an honorary member and that President Harding was in the assemblage and while he would miss the Washington treat he was glad to be able to speak to Rev. Willis, Dr. Held and others. The speakers grew eloquent and were greeted with rounds of applause. Dr. John A. Held, pastor of the First Baptist church, replied to Mr. Hadley and all went "merry as a marriage bell." Dr. Held, Mr. Hadley and Rev. Willis expressed appreciation of the visit of the Navasota brethren.

Chancellor Commander Erskine announced that about fifty Bryan Knights of Pythias had accepted an invitation to visit Caldwell Lodge on Thursday evening leaving here at 5 p. m. to put on the work in amplified form and expected a glorious time. After the ceremonies ice cream and cake was served and the last seen of Dr. Held, Rev. Willis and Mr. Hadley all were grouped together partaking of the delicious refreshments as if nothing had happened. Indeed it was one of the most enjoyable events ever celebrated in Bryan.

Those present were: D. S. Buchanan, I. Maniloff, J. F. Casey, T. H. Halton, R. M. Walker, J. T. Maloney, A. L. Tomlinson, Jennings Franklin, W. E. Johnson, Joe Coufal, Olie Parks, Tom Higgs, C. G. Wetter, L. S. Ette, M. M. Erskine, C. S. Beckwith, Pat Newton, Rev. H. C. Willis, Dr. Jno. A. Held, J. H. Gammon, Wm. Griffin, J. R. Fain, O. O. Henderson, Jack Johnson, Tom Gilmore, Will I. McCulloch, J. H. Todd, Forrest Jones, J. E. Gammon, R. P. Lemon, C. W. Carroll, J. I. Barron, L. B. Maddox, J. F. Griffin, Tom Suber, Will Ruchti, Guy F. Boyett, George Hadley, J. M. Darwin, W. R. Milroy, Geo. Pletzer, J. S. Roberts, T. P. Boyett, H. H. Seale, J. W. Hall, Walter Downard, J. G. Minkert, J. M. Caldwell, H. S. Locke, L. P. Skinner, George Adams, J. H. Conway, Joe B. Reed, Lee J. Washington, April 20.—A decision is expected within a week on the extension of the emergency stock cattle rates from Texas points, as the result of a conference held today between Edward Chambers of the Santa Fe, Judge S. H. Cowan and S. C. Rowe, of Fort Worth, representing the live stock interests, and Chairman Clark of the Interstate Commerce Commission. One feature of the conference included the matter of application of the emergency rates from points on the Texas & Pacific and Orient to Oklahoma and Kansas points and the Northwest to continue for the emergency until July 15, as has been adopted by other Texas and Northern lines of railroads. Mr. Rowe and Judge Cowan left for Texas Monday night.

ROSS VOLUNTEERS CELEBRATION TO BE ELABORATE AFFAIR

(Special to the Eagle)
College Station, Tex., April 20.—The new silken American flag that floats so proudly over the freshly moved A. & M. campus, is a shouting symbol that something unusual is about to happen in Texas' greatest military institution. This is the week for the annual A. & M. Ross Volunteers' celebration, and never before in the history of the school have such elaborate plans been made for such festivity. That this is to be not only the greatest entertainment of its sort at the College but also in the state is made evident by the fact that 117 men have signed up to keep their out of town feminine friends at the Y. M. C. A., that over 100 are making arrangements to entertain their friends in the homes of friends in Bryan and on the campus, and that every eligible girl in or around Bryan is busily preparing flimsy and elite evening gowns for the long looked for R. V. week and its entertainments.

The Y. M. C. A. Building will probably be the center of all activities when the dances are not in progress. The entire third floor has been made into sleeping apartments for the young women, while the second floor will be used for parlors in which the girls may entertain their friends. The building will stay open the entire twenty-four hours of the day. Probably one meal, breakfast, will be served in the Y and all others can be procured at seasonable hours at the Mess Hall or Shirley Hotel.

All classes will suspend late Thursday afternoon in order that the young men will be able to entertain their friends and they will find that plans have been made whereby every moment will be full. The first event of the week is the Baylor-A. & M. game on Kyle Field, Thursday afternoon. Reservations for seats for this game have been made weeks ahead of time. The big Queen's ball comes Thursday night, and this will open the real festive festivities. Friday afternoon A. & M. again plays Baylor, on the home field and following the game comes the R. V. banquet at 7:30 to which only R. V. members and their feminine friends are invited.

The real P. V. ban to which everyone in the state is invited to attend is dated for Friday night and will last till the wee small hours of the morning. On Saturday afternoon the Y. M. C. A. will hold open house and Saturday night the festivities conclude with a big corn dance. Before this year only those boys who danced brought their friends but this year plans are in progress whereby all of those who do not attend the dance may still go and be royally entertained. The Y. M. C. A. is conducting picture shows in the Chapel and Air-dome Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights and two entertainments have been planned by the Bryan women. On Thursday evening there will be a barbecue at Oak Grove and on Friday there will be a lawn social. No one will be left out of the entertainments for the week end.

Already the Mess Hall is decorated ready for the occasion. The A. & M. colors of red and white are mingled with the R. V. colors of gold and white and long festoons hang from the walls and chandeliers. A passageway lined with ferns will be made through the kitchen to the dressing rooms prepared for the women. The soft lights of the chandeliers, the gay colors of the evening dresses, the white R. V. uniforms mingled with the regulation uniforms and civilian clothes will form one of the most novel sights of the present day.

The Shirley Hotel and the Mess Hall management have made arrangements to serve light lunches and sandwiches to couples during the intermission between the dances. Nothing will be left undone that could possibly make anyone have a good time during this gala week at the College.

THE A. & M. "Y" CABINET ENTERTAINS WITH FROG HUNT

(Special to the Eagle)
College Station, Texas, April 20.—The outgo A. & M. Y. M. C. A. cabinet entertained the new cabinet and their feminine friends with a frog hunt at the river Monday night. Large trucks were provided to take the crowd to the scene of the activities at about five o'clock and merriment ran high through out the evening. Frogs were shot, possums trapped and real camp "grub" cooked in front of a roaring fire. The picnic is an annual affair and proved to be one of the most enjoyable of its sort of the entire year.

The Eagle is backing President Roger C. Astin and Secretary C. L. Beason and the Brazos County Pure Bred Live Stock Association to the limit believing they will make a success of the undertaking. In fact the time has come when scrub stock must go as they have become unprofitable. Let every citizen of Brazos County prepare to meet the new issues of economic rehabilitation.

LIBRARY TO CLOSE
The Carnegie Library will be closed all day tomorrow, San Jacinto Day, owing to it being a legal holiday.

ENGINEERING SHOW WAS GREAT SUCCESS

(Special to the Eagle)
College Station, Texas, April 20.—The Agricultural Engineering show given by the department under the direction of Professor D. Scoates, his assistants and the students in the department was proclaimed a great success by the hundreds of college and Bryan people who visited it during the day yesterday. The fact that it was an entirely new attraction for this section of the country added very much to its importance. Valuable information as well as a feeling of having been delightfully entertained was carried away by all who attended.

Tractor exhibits, an automobile style show, sectionized motors and motor vehicles, and an exhibit of farm implements made up the great part of the show, while included in the various accessory exhibits and demonstrations were a home convenience laboratory, showing isolated electric light plant such as can be used in a farm home together with some of the electrical apparatus used in connection with it, all of which was loaned by the Western Electrical Company of Dallas; farm gas engine laboratory, containing various types of small stationary gas engines adapted for general belt work on farm; engines ranging from 1 horse power 1 cylinder farm gas engine to 400 horse power, 12 cylinder Liberty motor; oxygen-acetylene welding, being a demonstration of the use of oxygen-acetylene flames as a means of welding and cutting cast iron, steel brass and aluminum; trouble shooting room, showing multiple cylinder gas engines used to instruct students in the common engine troubles; automobile ignition laboratory, showing ignition, starting and lighting systems; storage battery display, showing parts of automobile storage battery, etc.

The experts in the department made the demonstrations of engines and motors and explained the function and repair of all types, as well as the parts of each. Those who conducted this work were: G. E. Martin, S. D. Snyder, F. R. Jones, C. L. Pomeroy, E. L. Meyers, E. M. King, C. I. Hutchinson, H. P. Smith and M. R. Bentley.

The automobile show was made up of the following entries: Bryan Buick Company, Bryan; Buick five passenger touring car, Buick seven passenger touring car. Central Texas Auto Company, Bryan; Studebaker touring cars, Overland touring cars. Chambers & Wilson Company, Bryan; Ford touring car, Ford Coupe and Ford tractor.

D. D. White, Bryan; Dodge touring cars, Texaco products.

A small type corn mill was in operation demonstrating the manufacture of meal and a small bag was given free to every woman. The show was one of the largest ever held in the South and will rank high with any in the North and the East. Too much praise can not be given Professor Scoates and his able corps of assistants.

SPECIAL SESSION OF LEGISLATURE FOR JUNE BY GOVERNOR NEFF

Austin, Tex., April 20.—Governor Pat M. Neff returned today from Corpus Christi and will leave Thursday afternoon for San Antonio accompanied by his family and several State officials with their families, to attend the Battle of Flowers on Friday. The party will return to Austin Friday night. The Governor has accepted an invitation to be in Dallas on May 10 and address the State Medical Society. While in Corpus Christi Governor Neff attended the banquet given in gratitude for his having signed the bill donating the taxes of seven adjacent counties for a number of years to construct storm protection and harbor improvements at Corpus Christi. He says it was a delightful occasion, with a large crowd in attendance and with some of the best speeches he has ever heard at a banquet.

Governor Neff said today he has not positively made up his mind as to when he will call the special session of the Legislature, though it will be some time in June. He is investigating several matters that are to be considered in arriving at the best date for its convocation.

SEVENTEEN GUNS WILL WELCOME GOV. NEFF TO A. & M. COLLEGE

College Station, Texas, April 19.—If Governor Pat M. Neff, who has accepted the invitation of President W. B. Bizzell to present the diplomas to the graduating class at the A. & M. College of Texas on May 25, arrives at the College in the day time and departs while the sun is still shining on this continent, he will be very ceremoniously escorted by mounted cavalry and noisily saluted by batteries of 3-inch American field guns, according to military regulations of the U. S. army.

As President Bizzell accompanies Governor Neff from the train to his waiting automobile, the troop of mounted cavalry, lined up just in front of the automobiles and facing the approaching party, will present sabers. As the governor enters the car the troop will come to the position of carrying sabers, form a column in front of the car and lead toward the campus. When the column begins to move, a battery of field artillery consisting of four 3-inch American field guns on the drill field close by will begin firing the appropriate salute for the governor of Texas, which is seventeen guns. The same ceremony will be repeated when the governor departs. Since the promised visit of the governor there has been much discussion among the members of the two troops of cavalry and the two batteries of field artillery as to which organization will be the escort and fire the salute on the arrival.

As a result Major L. R. Dougherty, professor of military science and tactics, has ordered cadet Captains W. N. Roper and W. M. Works, commanders of the two batteries to "split" for the honors. Roper's home is at Rosebud, Texas and Works is from Amarillo.

Captain W. T. Bals, assistant professor of military science and tactics, has devised another plan to award the honor to the cavalry. He has ordered a competitive drill between the two troops to be held before the time for the visit, and to the winner of the drill will go the honor. George W. Martin, of Dallas, is commander of Troop B and A. L. Forbes of Houston commands Troop T. The troops and battery which does not participate in the reception will have charge of the departing ceremony.

DEATH OF REV. WEST IN MISSISSIPPI

The sad news of the sudden death of Rev. J. D. West, at his home in Newton, Mississippi, was received this morning by Major L. L. McInnis in a telegram from Miss Virginia West, a daughter of the deceased. Rev. West was in his 85th year, and since the death of his good wife, more than a year ago, has been in very feeble health. Although his condition was very feeble, his immediate death was not expected and comes as a great sorrow to his family and friends.

For many years Rev. West and his family made Bryan their home while he was the beloved pastor of the First Presbyterian church in this city, and a host of loving friends here, who have known his christian ministrations and the kindly attentions of his gentle wife and noble childer, mourn to learn that a great and noble man is gone, but rejoice in the realization of the blessed reward that is his in the great beyond. The remains will be laid to rest in the family burying grounds at Newton, Mississippi. Three daughters and one son survive their noble father, Mrs. Cope Reese, Pensacola, Fla., Miss Elizabeth West, State Librarian of Texas, Austin; Miss Virginia West, Newton, Miss., and Dr. Edgar West of Memphis, Tenn.

(By Associated Press)
El Paso, Texas, April 20.—In New Mexico and Colorado, are 50,000 coal miners who have work for only two days out of every week, according to mine operators. These men, mostly because the public will not buy coal in the spring and summer, the operators said, are in hard financial straits.

A coal famine is threatened next winter, the operators said. The mine owners are unable to store the coal in great quantities, they said in urging the public to buy coal this summer while it is cheaper and store it in private bins, or face a coal famine and pay higher prices next winter.

Proposes a New Tax On The Texas Moving Picture Shows

(Special to the Eagle)
Austin, Texas, April 20.—An effort is to be made at the coming special session of the legislature to provide for the rural schools of Texas, according to W. E. Thomason, member of the lower house of the legislature from Nacogdoches county, who spent the day here on business. In just what manner this appropriation is to be made, he was uncertain. Representative Thomason was the author of the bill in the house which carried an appropriation of $4,000,000 for the rural schools and which was disapproved by the governor.

Representative Thomason said he was rather inclined to favor the plan proposed by Miss Annie Webb Blanton to have a bill passed, if possible, which would impose a tax of one cent per ticket on moving picture shows. He believes that such a tax would yield almost sufficient to meet the needs of these country schools. Mr. Thomason has some doubts of the plan which contemplates the imposition of tax on certain of the natural resources of the state, such as lumber, oil, coal and sulphur.

There is a new normal school to be built at Nacogdoches and also one at Kingsville. These schools will cost the first year about $1,000,000. Then a new West Texas A. & M. College will cost about $1,000,000 for the first year and there is now no money for these institutions.

ABOUT BRYAN PEOPLE

Question of Overhead

The esteemed Bryan Eagle wishes to know how this paper regards the question of "overhead," adding that "many persons do not realize that the overhead established during the war, if maintained, will ultimately destroy all business in the United States." The Waco Times-Herald will be obliged to Editor Rountree for some examples of the workings of the system, that it may be more intelligently discussed the question. It is quite sure that Editor Rountree has given to the matter more than passing consideration, and it will thank him for some of the data in his possession that it may be amply fortified in any position it may take. When Lee J. Rountree has given his time and attention to a subject, the facts are all in, if at all accessible, and while one may differ with his conclusions, one can not doubt the accuracy of any statements he may make. The people of Brazos County sent Mr. Rountree for legislative service down at Austin. We have long thought that his ability entitled him to Congressional honors. He has the welfare of the people at heart, and his integrity gives weight to all that he says in the columns of his most excellent newspaper. An upright man and a worthy citizen is this Brazos County editor, and when he brings accusation against any practice, the Waco Times-Herald knows of a certainty he has gathered some facts that compel the public's most careful attention.—George C. Robinson in Waco Times-Herald.

Almost Criminal Action.

There is something wrong with the system that will permit a transportation charge of more than one hundred and thirty per cent on the same shipment of freight over a line less than one-thirtieth the length of the line making the smaller charge. The Bryan Eagle shows where a recent shipment of 50 bales of cotton from that city to Houston cost $197.88 while the same lot of cotton was shipped from Houston to Hamburg, Germany for $142.45. Hamburg distance is 3,300 miles while the distance from Bryan to Houston is 100 miles.—J. T. Robinson in Kesse Cyclone.

Tribute to Secretary Eberstadt.

Secretary S. E. Eberstadt, of the Bryan Chamber of Commerce last week made a record for quick and efficient work when after a campaign of only twenty-six hours, he sold, by his own efforts alone, 1250 shares of Building and Loan Association stock at $200 per share—a total of $250,000 worth. This stock was the total issue of Series No. 2 of the Building and Loan Association organized by Mr. Eberstadt in Bryan a few years ago. The second series will bring to the Association a monthly income of $2,750, which amount will be loaned to home builders. The Reporter can conceive of no better, surer or quicker way to build up one's home town.—John E. Cooke in Rockdale Reporter.

More Homes For Bryan.

The Bryan Eagle says: "The Bryan Building and Loan Association gives out the statement through President Cole and Secretary Eberstadt that the income for building homes in Bryan will soon reach $3,000 per month or $36,000 per year. This amount will be sufficient to build a home each month for some citizen of Bryan who has no home. This is a great work. In Sulphur Springs the Buildings and Loan Association is capitalized for $1,500,000 and has built 125 of the best homes in that town. Bryan can duplicate and exceed this record in the next few years. Let's all work for a greater Bryan by supporting the Building and Loan Association." Good for President Cole and Secretary Eberstadt, especially the secretary, because the big end of the work probably falls on him. Any institution that can build homes of the sort for which Bryan is noted is a benevolent enterprise worthy of all praise and prosperity. The Eagle may be a little enthusiastic when it estimates that $3,000 will turn out to be the average price of a home. Thirty thousand wouldn't touch number of the homes in Bryan, but just the same the enthusiasm is justifiable. When a man goes into a building and loan he is supposed to have a little nest egg of his own, anyhow, so it may turn out that the Eagle is nearer right than wrong. And even if the $3,000 runs out before the cement walk is built in front or plastering is done in the kitchen, you can't get around the fact that it is a home—somebody's home—and if that somebody's you, you've got a right to sit out on the shavings and shingle nails on the lawn in the moonlight with the little lady and dream dreams that are denied to the palace dweller in the midst of all his luxury. But more likely you will get into an argument as to whether the paint is dry enough to go in over the front porch yet, or as to where the bathroom ought to be the next time you plan a home.—Dallas Galveston News.

Twenty-five Years Ago.

The Houston Post of April 18, 1895 says: "Hearne—The presidency of Brazos is in session here. Rev. Geo. C. Woolbridge of Houston preached the opening sermon. Rev. J. W. West of Bryan was elected moderator. Rev. W. H. Leavell of Houston was elected commissioner to the general assembly to be held in Memphis, and C. W. Bocock was elected lay representative."

The Bryan Daily Eagle is doing more to put Bryan and Brazos county on the map in a substantial way than any other newspaper ever published in that good old county. Newspapers and newspaper correspondents can do this work if they have the ability and the patriotism to do so, but too many do not seem to realize that they can do these things for their community. The newspapers and correspondents should back those who are able and willing to push the town.—LeGrange News.

"A HOME INSTITUTION"

COUNTY OFFICERS REMOVED BY JUDGE IN HILL COUNTY

(By Associated Press)

Hillsboro, Texas, April 19.—Suit was filed in the district court here Saturday night asking the removal from office of three Hill county commissioners: Dr. E. D. Ward of precinct No. 1, W. T. Green of precinct No. 2 and F. A. Stanford of precinct No. 4, who were re-elected last November. Violation of the law in late road bonds was charged.

The road bonds at issue were sold for Hubbard, Mount Calm, Abbott, Bynum and Acquilla precincts, in the aggregate sum of $904,000. Bibb & Hughes being the purchasers. The suit recites that, while the contracts called for par value and accrued interest, Bibb & Hughes were allowed $27,000 for printing and other expenses in connection with the bonds.

In the contract, it is set forth, Bibb & Hughes were to buy the bonds, providing they received contracts for building roads in the precincts referred to. The petition alleges that Bibb & Hughes were awarded the contract for the construction of the roads and that the contract price was one-third more than other contractors would have charged.

After hearing the petition District Judge B. Horton Porter issued an order setting a hearing for the May-June term of court and temporarily suspending the three commissioners from office. He named in their place Charlie Carver for precinct No. 1, Dr. L. F. Shoemaker for precinct No. 2 and L. S. Files for precinct No. 3.

The last two grand juries spent considerable time in investigating road matters. The present grand jury has been in almost continuous session since it was empaneled, and W. T. Green, one of the suspended commissioners, twice has been remanded to jail for refusing to answer questions put to him by grand jurors. He was released both times on habeas corpus proceedings. The hearing in the second case will come up tomorrow before Judge Munroe at Waco. The petition for removal of the commissioners, however, did not come from the grand jury, but from citizens and was filed by County Attorney Will M. Martin and Vaughan & Abney, attorneys for realtors.

METHODIST WOMEN MEET IN SOCIETIES

The Woman's Missionary Society of the Methodist Church has the largest membership in the history of the church, which is most gratifying to those of the society who are laboring so zealously for its interest. Much enthusiasm is being manifested in the Bible and mission study and the financial obligations are readily met without the asking, which is evidence of the real interest. At Monday afternoon's meeting all showed more than an average attendance.

On account of illness only six members responded to roll call of Group No. 1 when they met with Mrs. E. A. Sullivan at the home of Mrs. M. M. Daugherty on West 29th street. Mrs. J. L. McKee lead the lesson and after the business the ladies lingered for a social chat and as this was Mrs. Sullivan's first chance at being hostess, she passed a cup of hot chocolate and a cake to be sociable. Present were: Mrs. E. A. Sullivan, H. H. Young, J. L. McKee, H. C. Fulham, E. C. Harder and J. M. Reed.

Group No. 2 met with Mrs. Wade Cox with eleven members present. Reports showed that every phase of the work was receiving attention and that more than half of the members were tithers. As a result of this they are an ideal group in meeting the requirements of the society and have funds in the treasury. Mrs. Bentley lead the Mission Study and showed that she had given it time and thought and with her gift of leadership brought a convincing message. Present were: Mesdames W. C. Boyett, Wade Cox, Cora Hamilton, Will Pindexter, Lee J. Rountree, H. H. Seale, G. C. White, R. B. Welch, M. B. Bentley, E. A. Miller and L. A. Koenig.

Group No. 3 has the largest membership of any of the groups and had a splendid meeting with Mrs. E. J. Jenkins hostess and Mrs. A. M. Waldrop lead of the Mission Study lesson. Group No. 3 will be hostess for the monthly social meeting next Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Gibbs. At this meeting a cordial invitation is extended to all the women of the church, the society and the Young Woman's Missionary Society. Those present were: Mesdames W. F. Gibbs, E. J. Jenkins, H. N. Cochran, Frank Dial, P. H. Hensarling, W. C. Lawson, F. D. Pierce, P. C. Parker, W. E. Neeley, W. W. Solomon, A. M. Waldrop, H. A. Widdecke and J. B. Priddy.

EL PASO TIRING OF JUAREZ CRIMES

(By Associated Press)

El Paso, April 20.—"Is Juarez, Mexico, an asset or a liability to El Paso?" This was the subject discussed at a meeting of the El Paso Advertising Club. A score of members spoke and all but two declared that Juarez, on account of its segregated district, its "dope" colonies and saloons and gambling houses, was a liability to El Paso. The two speakers who said it was an asset qualified their statement, however, by saying that the town would be much more of an asset to El Paso if it was cleaned up.

BOYS AND GIRLS CLUBS HAVE A GREAT MEETING AT COLLEGE

(By C. L. Beason)

The union meeting at College Friday of the Steep Hollow and Tabor Boys' and Girls' Clubs was a success in every particular. Fifteen to twenty automobiles packed with buoyant young people, farmers, and farm women attested the interest of the occasion. In point of attendance it was all that could have been expected, practically the entire membership of the two clubs being present, with a few scattering ones from other clubs. The close attention and the scores of busy pencils taking notes of facts and figures, words of counsel and instruction gave evidence of the splendid interest from early morn till late in the afternoon.

If only club boys and girls had been observed taking notes, one might have concluded that the several prizes offered for the best stories of the trip prompted the notations, but teachers, farmers, and farm women were just as busy taking notes of basic facts, such as the different breeds of horses, types of beef cattle, the several breeds of hogs and the balanced ration they must have to do best, the laying strains of poultry, records of dairy cows, the plan and purposes of the Experiment Farm, and etc. In way of disgression, let it be said that a teacher taking notes on such a trip could get more practical material for class room work than he could possibly cull from the pages of a musty book in a month, and let's go one further, the teacher in Brazos county who does not take advantage and use the wonderful resources at his command at the A. & M. College is only rendering fifty cents on the dollar of what he might be worth to his school and community.

The trip to the Extension farm revealed, for the first time to many, the real plan and purpose of the work being done. Many get the idea that an experiment farm is a place where only the best methods are used, when as a matter of fact the good and the bad, the true and the false alike are tried out, weighed in the balance and the results made available for all who ask. Every one wanted to note down what he forgot, that the A. & M. poultry farm recognizes no hen laying less than 175 eggs. The question arises, why should any Brazos county farm do so. A non-producing hen should be eaten and give place to a better hen.

No club boy who saw the pure bred Angus, the Herefords, or the Short-horns will ever be satisfied to raise scrub yearlings. A vision of a greater enterprise is now in the mind of that boy—the farmer or the rancher of tomorrow. Some club girl was observed to whisper to a boy close by her side. Perhaps she said, "John, that's the kind we'll raise someday."

The trip to the hog barn revealed, certainly to the pig club members, some essentials in successful hog raising. It was observed that the brood sows had lots, not pens. pasture shade, water, and a balanced ration such as ten parts of milo chops to one of tankage. The visit to the dairy barn gave all a new vision of the milk industry. Not only record cows giving ten or twelve gallons of milk were shown, but it was pointed out that these cows had increased their records since coming to Brazos county.

The day was not spent in listening to long speeches yet number of pithy and pointed talks were made that will ever remain a source of inspiration to them. The A. & M. people seemed glad to have the club boys and girls with them. Suppose we go again. What clubs are ready while Tabor and Steep Hollow are trying to digest the store of information they received?

Mrs. G. W. Orms, Mrs. W. H. Darlow and Mrs. J. T. Egan will be joint hostesses for the Extension Service Club Thursday afternoon at 3:30 at the home of Mrs. Orms.

Mrs. George Smith Jr. has returned from a visit to friends in San Marcos.

Tired

"I was weak and run-down," relates Mrs. Eula Burnett, of Dalton, Ga. "I was thin and just felt tired, all the time. I didn't rest well. I wasn't ever hungry. I knew, by this, I needed a tonic, and as there is none better than—

CARDUI

The Woman's Tonic

... I began using Cardui," continues Mrs. Burnett. "After my first bottle, I slept better and ate better. I took four bottles. Now I'm well, feel just fine, eat and sleep, my skin is clear and I have gained and sure feel that Cardui is the best tonic ever made."

Thousands of other women have found Cardui just as Mrs. Burnett did. It should help you.

Club Notes and Farm News by County Agent C. L. Beason

"When tillage begins, other arts follow. The farmers, therefore, are the founders of human civilization." Much enthusiasm in Brazos County District Agent, Mrs. Kate Lee Daugherty, Mrs. J. T. Hanway of the Red Cross, District Agent A. W. Buchanan and County Agent C. L. Beason report much enthusiasm among club members of Steep Hollow, Reliance and Kurten schools which were visited on Tuesday of this week.

Joe Lloyd Jr., president of the Reliance club, presided with dignity and to the delight of the visitors. Following is the membership of the reliance club as shown by cards received in County Agent's office: Joe Lloyd Jr., president, corn and potatoes; Lillie Crenshaw, secretary, home improvement; Miss Essie Shealy, club leader, Mary Outlaw, home improvement; Alma Mathis, home improvement; Andy Outlaw, home improvement; Rose Stewart, home improvement; Lottie Merka, home improvement; Mary Freeling, tomatoes; Fred Freeling, poultry; Tillman Jones, pig; Russell Lloyd, pig; George Riley, pig and corn; J. J. Riley Jr., pig; Bailey Warren, potatoes; Oatis Warren, pig; Harold Shealy, pig; Bessie Crenshaw, home improvement. R. W. Persons, Assistant State Agent in charge of boys' club work, advises that club membership in field crops has been extended from April 1st to April 20. Club membership in live stock may be accepted till June 1st.

Miss Hettie Francis, club member at Tabor, reports a gain of more than two pounds per day for her pig for the 30 days ending April 6. The other 40 pig club members better look out. The recent heavy rains may have damaged your stand of corn, and in some instances may require your replanting again, and if so don't forget the dependable corn succropur. When too late to plant corn, remember peanuts, sweet potatoes, etc.

County Agent Beason asked the pupils of the Kurten school which comes on the vine first, the bloom or the watermelon. Some said one thing, some said another. To settle the question, and to get this bit of information, Mr. Beason proposed to give a present to the first one making the observation for himself and then reporting the facts in the case. Guess who will get that present, boys.

The seven directors of the Brazos County Purebred Live Stock Association will assist in finding 10 live, wide-awake boys whom the City National Bank will finance in the purchase of ten registered Shorthorn heifers. A greater day is coming to old Brazos yet, and the boys and girls are going to help usher it in. Watch them.

Every club boy should carefully consider the exceptional opportunities offered at A. & M. this summer in the Farm Boys' Division of the Summer Session, July 5 to 30. Other boys will come two hundred miles and more to attend this special course for boys. Why not Brazos county boys take advantage of it? Say, boys, pass the paper over to your father, when you have finished reading this paragraph. This is Tuesday night. Let us hope that old Jupiter Pluvius will spare us a favorable day at College tomorrow. We will do the rest.

When in town on Saturday, don't forget to see the County Agent and tell him about your plans and work, and leave some news about your club. On account of rain the Steep Hollow program announced for the 9th has been postponed till Friday night, April 29. Let's all go. Listen, club members, I have something good to tell you about the business and professional men of Bryan. Watch club column, perhaps next week.

Our hopes have been blighted. The rain will prevent Wednesday's trip to College. Remember, it is not falling that determines a man, but getting up every time he does fall. Let the program stand as made, and we shall try to carry it out on Friday of this week. Let every body go to College Friday. County Agent Beason says his wife had baked the old hen for lunch at College on Wednesday. He will now ask her to kill the rooster for Friday's lunch.

On account of another heavy rain, the union meeting of the Boys' and Girls' Agricultural Clubs announced for College on Wednesday, has been postponed till Friday of this week.

MARKETING COTTON THRU' FARM BUREAUS

A county-wide campaign for the Texas Farm Bureau Cotton Growers Cooperative Marketing Association is being conducted in Milam county this week. In referring to this campaign the Rockdale Reporter has the following to say: "The Reporter is devoting much space this week to the farm Bureau campaign. In doing so we are necessarily forced to omit a great deal of our regular news. We are not offering this as an apology, for we feel that we are but helping to promote the best move ever started for the farmer."

At two o'clock, at the Court House next Saturday a mass meeting of the farmers of Brazos county will be held for the purpose of having explained the plan of the Farm Bureau, especially that part of it relating to the cooperative marketing of cotton, etc. The Farm Bureau is now actively engaged in forming a pool of one million bales of the Texas crop for 1921 and similar work is being done in other cotton states, and it is said that when this organization is completed it will represent the largest cotton selling agency in the world.

Every Brazos county farmer should attend the meeting next Saturday and learn something of the plans and purposes of this Farm Bureau whose membership already consists of approximately two million farmers.

(Special to the Eagle)

Dallas, Texas, April 19.—Aaron Sapiro, declared to be the foremost authority on agricultural cooperative marketing, will make a ten day speaking tour of Texas under the auspices of the Texas Farm Bureau Federation, it was announced here today. The tour is as follows: McKinney, Saturday, April 30; Paris, Monday, May 2; Waxahachie, Tuesday, May 3; Tyler, Wednesday, May 4; Waco, Thursday, May 5; Taylor, Friday, May 6; Bryan, Saturday, May 7; Corpus Christi, Monday, May 9; San Antonio, Tuesday, May 10. The Texas cooperative marketing law, passed by the recent legislature, the last word in rural cooperative legislation in America, was submitted by Mr. Sapiro. The bill was introduced by Representatives Davis, of Dallas; Rountree, of Brazos; Williams, of McLennan and Stevenson, of Victoria. The Senate amended the bill and these amendments were harmonized by a free conference committee composed of Senators Smith, Buchanan and Bailey and Representatives Davis, Rountree and Veatch.

"Mr. Sapiro was heard by large audiences on his other visits to Texas and the audiences in Dallas were filled with people who had come from every section of Texas to hear him. He has had years of experience in the various California growers' associations, but is also familiar with cotton and the cotton market, and is acting as representative for several large southern cotton marketing associations now being formed. He is thoroughly informed on the middle-west's attempts at cooperation through the co-operators and all of the earlier cooperative schemes, from the Rochdale buyers' system evolved in England and the cooperative societies which have been formed in Russia, Denmark, France, Hungary and Germany.

"As a speaker, Aaron Sapiro is very magnetic and vigorously direct. He usually refrains from a formal talk and invites his hearers to challenge any statement which he may make, or to ask for a more detailed discussion of any point. He has had long years of experience with cooperative action and with the various market and economic conditions, and does not hesitate to talk boldly and openly of any world-wide or local conditions."

FEDERATION WILL ACCEPT INVITATION TO MEET AT COLLEGE

The invitation to the Fourth District Federation of Women's Clubs at Caldwell to hold its next annual convention at College Station was extended on behalf of the Campus Study Club by Mrs. W. B. Bizzell, who said: "Madam President and Ladies of the Fourth District Federation of Women's Clubs, I bring you greetings from the President of the A. & M. College, whom I have the signal honor to represent, the faculty, and two thousand of the finest young men in America, who join with the Campus Study Club in extending to you the heartiest invitation to be their guests at your next meeting. This invitation comes from the heart of our Campus community. It reflects a sincere desire upon the part of our people to have you pay us a visit. We are a unique community—a little city of our own—and we belong to you. You know that the Agricultural and Mechanical College of Texas is the college of all the people of this state North, South, East and West. It does not represent a segregated group of the youths of the State, but a student body that comes from every section of this great empire. We believe it will be worth your while to see our boys at work and at play, in an environment of high purposes and widespread contentment. We want you to see our noble buildings erected by the people of Texas and dedicated to training a loyal citizenship for useful employment.

"We admit that you can hold your federation in towns and cities where, homes are more pretentious and facilities are more adequate for physical comfort, but we do not believe that you can meet where your entertainment will give more joy and pleasure to your hosts, or where your presence will be more appreciated.

"We are not unmindful that the Fourth District has honored our club by electing one of its members to the presidency of its federation. We would like to have the honor of entertaining you as one of the possible expressions of our appreciation for the distinction you have conferred. Therefore, on behalf of College Station and its entire community I extend you a cordial invitation to hold your next federation with us, and we assure you in advance that every possible effort will be extended to make your stay in our midst as pleasant and profitable as possible. The boys urge you—if you accept, and of course you will—please bring your daughters with you."

The federation decided by a unanimous standing vote to hold its 1922 meeting at College after Mrs. Bizzell's invitation which was received with cordiality and applause by all present at the Caldwell meeting.

CITY HOTELS HAVE BEEN THE PROFITEERS

(By Associated Press)

Gageston, Texas, April 18.—Fewer hotels at a much greater cost to the public. This is one of the results of prohibition in relation to the hotel business, according to W. E. Hawk, manager of the Hotel Gibson, of Cincinnati, here recently at the two-day convention of the Southern Interstate Hotelmen's association. Mr. Hawk said that with the disappearance of the bar, hotels had been obliged to charge for every convenience which formerly was offered to the public free. Even the washrag, he said, now must bring in its quota of revenue. Discussing pre-prohibition days, the Cincinnati man said. "Some hotels had bars attached and some bars had hotels attached." Mr. Hawk was informed that perhaps the greatest profiteers during the war were the hotels. He did not seem to understand that the war was over.

CITIZENS OF BRAZOS WILL CONVENE IN MASS MEETING

To Join In a State-Wide Movement For Law Enforcement to Stop the Present "Crime Wave"—Will Be Held in Bryan on Friday, April 29

As heretofore announced in the columns of the Eagle, a meeting was held at the Baptist Tabernacle in Bryan on Sunday afternoon, April 10, for a conference on the subject of law enforcement in Brazos county and Texas. This meeting was attended by the pastors of the several churches of Bryan, and a number of lay-members, both men and women. At this meeting it was decided to hold a county-wide mass meeting at the court house in Bryan on Friday, April 29th, and the following committee was appointed to arrange a program for the occasion: E. J. Jenkins, Mayor Tyler Haswell, Major L. L. McInnis, Mrs. Lee J. Rountree and Mrs. Albert Buchanan.

This committee met Monday morning, and after a thorough discussion of the matter, a program was formulated which is very comprehensive in its scope and covers all phases of law infractions, as well as many other present day problems, demoralizing in their influence, and yet do not come within the pale of the law. It was the consensus of opinion of the members of the committee that it is not so much a council on law enforcement that is needed, as a general education conference that will put the people to thinking, and bring them to a fuller realization of the alarming problems, both criminal and social, that are confronting us today, and which are undermining the superstructure of all organized society.

The committee believes that "turning on the light," will arouse the public conscience, and that proper enlightenment will bring about a general course of corrective methods and give the people higher ideals and a broader vision of life in its truest meaning. With this accomplished, the fight will be won.

The mass meeting will convene in the district court room on Friday, April 29th and a morning, afternoon and evening session will be held. It is desired that this conference be largely attended and a full representation from all the communities of the county is urged. The widest publicity possible will be given the meeting in order that all may be made thoroughly familiar with its aims and purposes, that the people may become interested and be on hand to hear the discussions and take part in the deliberations. The program is as follows:

MRS. JONES PASSES AWAY AT SHERMAN

Mrs. Kate Wilcox received a telegram this morning telling the sad news of the death of Mrs. Mary Jane Jones of Sherman, Thursday night, at the home of her niece Mrs. A. T. Potter. The remains will be shipped to Bryan arriving tonight and will be taken to the home of Mrs. Kate Wilcox and from that residence the funeral services will be held Saturday morning at 10 o'clock. Interment in the city cemetery. Dr. Wm. N. Sholl, pastor of the Presbyterian church will conduct the services and the following are the active pallbearers: Walter J. Coulter, F. H. Henderson, J. L. Brock, Dale Weddington, D. Mike and D. E. Newland.

Mrs. Jones formerly lived in Bryan and was the wife of H. H. Jones, familiarly known as "Doc," who was a business man of Bryan for many years. She was a devout christian woman, serving her Master by doing good to the unfortunate. And especially is she remembered in Bryan by the older citizens for her devout and unselfish work during the yellow fever epidemic. The night was never too dark nor too cold, when the call came that Mrs. Jones did not respond in His name. It was during this epidemic that she lost her only child, a daughter, Alice. She leaves no immediate family her husband having died some years ago.

TEXAS IS PREPARING TO GO TO STARVATION

(Special to the Eagle)

Dallas, Texas, April 18.—Texans consume $2,000,000 pounds of butter annually and produce only 62,000,000 pounds, according to the Texas Chamber of Commerce which gets its statistics from J. W. Ridgeway of the Mistletoe Creameries of Fort Worth, Amarillo and San Antonio. Commenting upon a recent statement of the Texas Chamber of Commerce that Texas produces far less pork than is consumed in the state, Mr. Ridgeway, who was formerly dairy specialist at the A. & M. College, comes forward with the statement that the same condition holds in the dairy industry.

Texas ships into the state each year, 20,000,000 pounds of butter, 15,000,000 pounds of cheese, 7,000,000 gallons of condensed milk, and about 3,500,000 pounds of milk powders, sweet butter and other products. In other words, Texas pays about $20,000,000 annually in cold cash for dairy products which she must buy from other states. This is equivalent to 400,000 bales of 10-cent cotton. Texas would have to increase her dairy herd population about 50 per cent to supply her own needs. Indications are that there will be a big increase in the hog and dairy industries during 1921 and 1922.

TO TAX SPECIAL INTERESTS FOR EDUCATION IN TEXAS

(Special to the Eagle)

Austin, Texas, April 16.—Governor Neff has received a large number of petitions from different parts of Texas requesting that he submit at the coming special session of the legislature, the rural school aid bill. The governor has intimated that he may do this, provided a way to raise the funds is provided for by the legislature. It was because of insufficient funds that the governor disapproved the bill carrying $4,000,000 passed at the regular session. Miss Annie Webb Blanton has suggested that funds to aid the rural schools may be raised by passing a law imposing a one-cent tax on each ticket to a moving picture or other places of amusement. She also suggested that the imposition of a suitable tax on certain of the natural resources of the state, such as coal, sulphur, lumber and possibly oil, would go a long way to provide the revenue for the purpose herein indicated. The governor has not as yet, as far as is known, formulated any definite plans for increasing the revenue of the state for school or any other purpose.

VIOLATION OF PEONAGE LAW IN WEST TEXAS

Dallas, Texas, April 16.—Reported violations of the United States peonage act in West Texas are being investigated by agents of the department of justice who are gathering at Big Springs from Dallas, Fort Worth and Abilene, according to information given out at headquarters in Dallas Thursday morning. The reports received here allege that Mexicans are being held in peonage and chained down at night to keep them from running away from work. F. M. Spencer, chief of the department of justice here, stated Thursday morning he had nothing definite on the case, as he had not heard from any of the men sent to make the investigations. Reports of peonage being practiced throughout West Texas have been coming to the local office for several weeks and the department agents have been working throughout numerous counties in the western section. It was said.

The practice of selling Mexicans food and clothing and then keeping them at work until they pay, always managing to keep them just a little behind in their payments, is alleged according to Mr. Spencer. Agents of the department of justice have been instructed to make a thorough investigation and file reports here at the earliest practicable moment. Instructions to file charges if the developments in the case warrant, have also been given the men, according to Chief Spencer.

ORGANIZATION OF KU KLUX KLAN BEING FORMED IN TEXAS

Since the Ku Klux Klan has appeared in Houston, Dallas and Wharton the Eagle has been asked to give a brief history of the organization of recent years and submit the following handed by a member of the order. "Nearly twenty years ago the idea reviving the original Ku Klux Klan which won fame during the reconstruction period, and of perpetuating the principles upon which that organization was founded, and perpetuating its spiritual purpose, originated in the mind of Colonel William J. Simmons, now professor of Southern history at Lanier University in Atlanta.

"For fourteen years Colonel Simmons thought, studied and worked to prepare himself for launching the movement. Then, in October, 1915, he mentioned his ambition to some friends, among whom were three bona-fide members of the original Klan when it was disbanded by General Nathan B. Forrest. All were enthusiastic over the proposal, and, as a result, at another meeting held in the same month, all present, thirty-four in number, signed a petition for a charter.

Petition Accepted
"The petition was accepted and on Thanksgiving night in 1915, the organizers of the Klan assembled on top of the giant granite boulder known as Stone Mountain, near Atlanta, and there at midnight, under a blazing fiery cross, they took the oath of allegiance to the Invisible Empire, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan.

"The charter was issued by the state of Georgia, Dec. 4, 1915, and a special charter was granted by the superior court of Fulton County, July 1, 1916. Since the Klan had among its charter members three of the original members of the old Ku Klux Klan it was granted all the legal rights and privileges enjoyed by the original organization which swept the carpetbagger and the scalawag from the South in the dark days of the reconstruction period following the civil war, restored to the white people of the South their rightful heritage in the nation, brought order out of chaos by suppressing the lawless element of both races and then, having accomplished its purpose, was quietly disbanded by order of General Forrest, who was its chief.

Klan Needed Now
"While conditions today are not the same as they were when the original Klan was organized," Colonel Simmons has said, "the need for an organization like the Ku Klux Klan is just as pressing now as it ever was, but along different lines.

"Its purpose is to inculcate the sacred principles and noble ideals of chivalry, the development of character, the protection of the home and the chastity of womanhood, the exemplification of a pure patriotism toward our glorious country, the preservation of American ideals and the maintenance of white supremacy, and a vital, perpetual memorial to the men who served so valiantly in the ranks of the original Klan.

"No man is wanted in this order who hasn't manhood enough to assume a real oath with serious purpose to keep the same inviolate. No man is wanted in this order who will not, or who can not swear an unqualified allegiance to the government of the United States of America, its flag and its constitution.

Only native-born American citizens who believe in the tenets of the Christian religion and owe no allegiance of any degree or nature to any foreign government, political institution, sect, people or persons are eligible for membership."

TABOR NEWS ITEMS

Tabor, Texas, April 21.—Since our last write up many things have taken place. We do not know whether we shall be able to give all of them or not. One thing we do know we have had lots of weather both good and bad which has allowed some planting and prevented more and hindered work. Therefore the farmers are very badly behind with their work.

On last Friday the club members went with their leader Miss Mary Locke to the college where they were entertained by several speakers for the several divisions of the club.

We were met in Bryan by County Agent C. L. Beason and together with the Steep Hollow club we went directly to the college and enjoyed a splendid program, one number of which was a dinner spread in front of the Extension building.

Last Saturday night the grammar schools of the district rendered an interesting and entertaining program at the high school. The program was in the form of a commencement exercise given by the graduates of the seventh grades. It consisted of a salutatory, prophecy, class vision and valedictory, followed by a school play.

Sunday, the Senior class of the High School with several invited guests had an outing and dinner on the Brazos river.

The grade schools having closed, Miss Mary Cahill returned to her home, the other teachers, Mrs. J. L. Cobb, Misses Susie Benbow and Etta Harris live in the district.

(To All Correspondents:—Please always give names of people who participated in programs. Items without names are worth very little.—Editor.)

Mrs. Kate Barclay Williamson, who has been in Bryan for several days on a visit to her aunt, Mrs. Sallie W. Law, departed this afternoon for her home in Ashville, N. C., taking her aunt with her to spend the summer in that delightful climate. Mrs. Law's many friends in Bryan have enjoyed a visit from her for the past few weeks, and hope that the trip to Ashville will be of great benefit to her health.

SIX HUNDRED IN BAPTIST SUNDAY SCHOOL GOAL FOR MAY 1ST

The Sunday School of the First Baptist church has set as its goal 600 on first Sunday in May. The apportionment is as follows: 40 Beginners; 50 primaries; 75 Juniors; 100 Intermediates; 25 Senior Class; Adults as follows: Business Men's Bible Class 75; Young Men's Class 60; Friendship Class 50; T. E. L. Class 50; Married Ladies' Class, 40; Boatwright Class 35; Total 600. This is not an effort for a day but a goal from which to climb to higher things. Let's get out of our shell. Let every Loyal Baptist that is made of milk and cider but has gray matter in his head and the milk of joy to his heart, step out of his shell of old habits and come to Sunday School next Sunday—we'll show you how it is done. Every Baptist or near-Baptist in this worthy undertaking, "Six hundred and victory number one" is our watch word. Will you be one of that triumphant crowd? or will you sink into your tent of "I don't care"? We'll see "who is who" the next Sunday or two. Show your flag! Let everybody see what flag you are flying. Come out of your shell! The rest of us will watch you and God and the Angels will smile on some body—will it be you? Shall we count on you?

HARVEY NEWS ITEMS

Another very heavy rain fell here Tuesday night accompanied by high wind just as we were congratulating ourselves that the weather had cleared off, but we are glad to note that we escaped the frost that visited Bryan, and our fruit is not damaged at all, nor garden plants except by drowning out. Many acres will have to be replanted. M. G. Buchanan said Sunday that his farm looked like a lake after that notable four days rains last week and that his garden was ruined. Housewives were kept busy that week saving their little chickens. Mrs. Aron Williams reports that she had to bring hers in by the hamper basket full. She had 180. Mrs. Davidson thought she had an ideal place for her two coops this year, about 300 yards from the house under a large oak tree, but she found that it seemed to be the natural drainage for acres of land above it, and she spent the major part of her time Tuesday and Wednesday draining the water off from them as fast as it fell. She saved her chicks though and feels heroic. There were seventy-five of them. These Harvey people raise a great many chickens.

Quarterly meeting of the Free Baptist church here will convene on April 29th and 30th, beginning on Friday night with all day session on Saturday and dinner on the grounds followed by the usual sermon on Sunday a. m., May 1st. Everybody cordially invited to attend.

Mrs. Ruth Harold, nee Ruth Weeder, was visiting friends and relatives here last week.

MRS. HAYES REPORTS CALDWELL MEETING

The regular meeting of the Campus Study Club of College Tuesday afternoon in their club rooms in the "Y" building was of unusual interest with a large attendance to hear the report of the president, Mrs. M. L. Hayes, delegate to the Fourth District meeting of the Federation at Caldwell. Mrs. Hayes brought echoes of meeting that were both helpful and profitable. Mrs. Hayes is a pleasing and convincing speaker and has more than intellect a personality, which after all is most to be sought. The program for the afternoon was in the hands of Mrs. M. R. Bentley and she talked on "Efficiency in Household Management" taking it up from the three phases, "The Servantless Home," "The Difficulties of Cooperative Buying" and "Luxuriant Economy." Mrs. J. J. Taubehaus closed the program with a round table talk on "Texas Taxes." The club only has one more meeting for this year and it will be an open air affair on the lawn at the home of Prof. and Mrs. M. L. Hayes, with a picnic supper at which the husbands and the children of the members will be included.

OLD SPANISH TRAIL TO BE ADVERTISED BY THE HOTEL MEN

(By Associated Press)
Galveston, April 21.—This year's travelers of the "see America first" type are urged by the Southern Interstate Hotelmen's association to follow in the footsteps of the Padres and Conquistadores along the Old Spanish Trail, which begins at the southernmost point of Florida and ends where the waters of the Pacific caress the shores of California.

Decision to conduct a vigorous advertising and educational campaign on behalf of the scenic beauties of the south was unanimously agreed upon by the interstate organization at its two-day convention here recently. Approximately $100,000 will be expended at this end.

The Old Spanish Trail, which passes through eight states of the lower tier of the union, is composed of thirteen road divisions. Starting in Florida, for St. Augustine, Pensacola, Tampa and other cities have equal claim for consideration—the trail winds its way through Alabama, Mississippi, Louisiana, Texas, New Mexico, Arizona and thence into California, in all of which states the imprints of the Padres and Conquistadores is to be seen. St. Augustine, the oldest city in the United States; Tampa, the ancient gateway of De Soto, De Narvaez and the early explorers, and Pensacola, where De Luna, in 1559, landed with a great expedition of soldiers and priests, are among the chief points of interest in the initial stages of the tour. Florida remained a Spanish colony until 1819.

Alabama, which was first Spanish and then a part of the old Louisiana of the French, also is rich in legend and historical associations. Mavila now Mobile, was the seat of the ancient Indian kingdom where De Soto's expedition met disaster in what was probably the first decisive battle in the south's history.

Mississippi, the second link in the trail, was, as a part of French Louisiana, the scene of the first colonizing efforts of the French. Later both Spanish and English controlled the territory. From Mississippi the Old Spanish Trail winds into Louisiana, perhaps of all the states through which the historic highway passes, the richest in ancient Spanish legendry.

Tales descended to the present day have it that the Spaniards long considered the Gulf of Mexico as a Spanish lake. Argosies of gold sailed for years from the shores of Mexico to enrich the coffers of the ruler of all Spain, and Jean Lafitte's buccaneers, waging war against Spain under letters from Venezuela, succeeded in making life aboard the gold-carrying ships anything but peaceful and uneventful.

Seeking new sources of riches, De Soto discovered and crossed the Mississippi river and while diving, beguiled his followers to subject it to the flag of Spain. His followers, however, seeking safety, struggled down the Mississippi to its mouth, leaving to LaSalle, 140 years later, the distinction of claiming for France the vast territory which Spain might have had if De Soto had lived. Seventeen years later a French fleet entered the gulf and colonized Louisiana.

From the Louisiana line the trail passes such famous spots as the San Jacinto battlefield, where Texas won her independence from Santa Anna. Galveston, although not on the trail, is made accessible through a tributary highway. Refugio, Corpus Christi, San Antonio and many other Texas towns—their names testifying to the imprint of the Padres and Conquistadores—are within easy stages of the trail. The site of La Salle's treacherous death is on the main line of the trail, near the present city of Orange, Texas, and here a camping site has been provided for travelers.

San Antonio, around which much of the history of Texas is written, is an ancient mission, military and social center of the Spaniards. With the settlement of the city a new trail was developed from Mexico City, which passes through San Antonio to Nacogdoches and thence into French territory. This trail is known as the El Camino Real—the king's highway—and is believed one of the most ancient of American highways, for it appears to be but a continuation of the road system built by the Aztecs.

Westward from El Paso the trail passes through New Mexico in which some of the oldest and most picturesque of the Spanish missions are located. Santa Fe, New Mexico, is the second oldest city of the United States. Into the Santa Cruz valley of Arizona, from Tucson to Nogales, the trail passes many of the historic missions of the southwest. San Xavier, built in 1692, and Tumacacori, even older, are considered two of the most remarkable churches erected in a wilderness. It was in Arizona that Coronado, in 1540, conducted a search of the Seven Cities of Cibola, visioned as cities of gold.

Entering California, the Old Spanish Trail winds through missions erected by the Franciscans, each a day's journey apart. That of San Diego, where the present city now stands, and of San Capistrano, at Los Angeles, are two of the more notable California missions.

EX-EMPRESS WILL BE LAID TO REST AT POTSDAM, GERMANY

(By Associated Press)
Doorn, Holland, April 18.—The funeral train bearing the remains of the late former Empress Augusta Victoria, of Germany, to Potsdam, left the station at Maarn, three miles from here early today. Former Emperor William did not go to the station to see the train depart but remained in the house at Doorn with his brother, Prince Henry of Prussia. A service in mourning for the former German empress Augusta Victoria was held in Doorn castle Sunday morning. During it's progress, former Emperor William frequently sobbed and at one point seemed at the verge of a breakdown. Ex-Crown Prince Frederick William, his brothers, Adalbert and Oscar and others of the mourning party were visibly moved as they knelt before the catafalque bearing the coffin in which lay the body. The service was conducted by Dr. Dyander, the former court chaplain, who took the text of his sermon from the tenth verse of the second chapter of Revelations: "I will give thee a Crown of Life."

NOTABLE AND SIGNIFICANT GATHERING

In an unsigned letter from Washington, D. C., to the New York Herald, is given an interesting account of a birthday dinner given by a former Confederate, Colonel James Morris Morgan, to friends who had been his enemies during the Civil War. The significance of the event is so striking, and the writer of the story has narrated the incident in such an interesting manner that we take pleasure in reproducing the letter in full:

"There was a small but unique party in Washington on March 10, the occasion being the seventy-sixth birthday of Colonel James Morris Morgan. Seated around the table were the following guests: Rear Admiral Thomas O. Selfridge, U. S. N., who had three ships sunk under him in the Civil War. One was sunk by the Confederate ram when that vessel ran through the Federal fleet on her way to Vicksburg, and another, the frigate Cumberland, was rammed and sunk by the Merrimac in the great fight in Hampton Roads. Admiral Selfridge is the only survivor of the Cumberland.

"Captain H. H. Marmaduke, who is the sole survivor of the crew of the Merrimac on which vessel he was a midshipman; he was badly wounded by a shot from the Cumberland.

"Rear Admiral John Crittenden Watson, U. S. N., who was the flag lieutenant of Admiral Farragut in his great victories and who was really the one who passed the line around Admiral Farragut when the latter mounted the rigging of the Hartford at the battle of Mobile Bay.

"Rear Admiral Stirling, U. S. N., who was in the attack on Fort Fisher and who was also a sloop-of-war which chased and cut up very badly the blockade runner Lillian, on board of which Morgan, then a midshipman in the Confederate navy was trying to run into Wilmington, N. C., in 1864.

"Rear Admiral Charles E. Clark, who was on the Ossipee when she rammed the Confederate ramclad Tennessee at the battle of Mobile Bay, and in the Spanish war commanded the famous Oregon.

"Rear Admiral Colby M. Chester, who was on board of the sloop-of-war Richmond of Admiral Farragut's fleet at the battle of Mobile Bay, and who in the Spanish war commanded the cruiser Cincinnati.

"Major Herbert Barry, a nephew by marriage of Colonel Morgan and a member of Troop A, of New York, who was a liaison officer at the front in France, was the only other guest.

"It is doubtful if any such historical gathering of men of Civil war fame will ever take place again in view of the fact that more than half a century has elapsed since the Civil war ended."

Father of Mrs. Nagle

Colonel Morgan is the father of Mrs. J. C. Nagle of College Station and is well known in Bryan and College Station having been a frequent visitor here. Col. Morgan is the author of "The Recollections of a Rebel Reefer" and many magazine articles and short stories. He was a cadet at Annapolis when the war between the States broke out. The company above were all at Annapolis with him and they have renewed their friendship since his going to Washington to live. They belong to a heroic race of men who are fast passing to their reward beyond the River to meet Stonewall Jackson and "rest under the shade of the trees" on the other side.—Editor.

PARENT-TEACHERS' MEETING

The Parent-Teachers' Association at College Station is holding a three days clinic for the examination of the school children of the consolidated schools on the campus and invited the Red Cross health supervisor from the Bryan office to assist in the work. Tuesday was the first day, and 64 children were examined and registered on the health roll. Dr. W. B. Cline assisted with the examinations in the morning session and Dr. J. W. Black with the examinations during the afternoon. The clinic will continue through Wednesday and Thursday.

"CENTURY PLANT YEAR"

(By Associated Press)
Galveston, Texas, April 20.—The year 1921 will be "Century Plant Year," according to Charles Schumacher, of 3120 Avenue P, Galveston. In two weeks a Century plant in Schumacher's front yard grew in height from five feet to nearly eighteen feet, a growth of about six inches each twenty-four hours. The plant is, according to Mr. Schumacher, about ten years old and was brought to Galveston from Mexico.

THE PUPILS OF MRS. DANFORTH GIVE A DELIGHTFUL RECITAL

A rare musical treat was afforded the large and appreciative audience which greeted the music pupils of Mrs. Roy Danforth in program recital assisted by Mrs. A. L. Ward Miss Lovell and Mr. Eaton at St. Andrews Parish House on Saturday afternoon, April 16, at 8 o'clock. Floral decorations added beauty to the room, spring roses and ferns in baskets and vases being arranged effectively at the punch table and in window ledges. The blue larkspur was the chosen flower for the stage decorations and made an artistic spot for the pupils in voice and piano, who delighted the audience with one of the most artistic programs heard in Bryan in a long time. That most of the program was given from memory, proved the capable training given by Mrs. Danforth, and added another real charm to the occasion. After the rendition of the program, punch was served to all present. The program follows:

OUR BELOVED DEAD

Three distinguished members of the "old guard" in Texas newspaperdom have met the supreme test and paid the last earthly reward in the past few weeks. Hon. Henry Berryman Terrell, former comptroller of Texas; Col. William A. Bowen, of Arlington, and Robert O. Gresham, of Temple. It is such men as they were that in the early days made Texas weekly journalism famous throughout the country. They have many times in the past thirty or forty years sat side by side in Press Association, state conventions, civil and business organizations doing their duty nobly toward the building of the great commonwealth of Texas. In later years the services of the men who wrought well in Texas have been forgotten on account of the rush of things, but they and their kind laid the foundation and made it possible for the great newspapers of today to exist and succeed. Bowen, Terrell and Gresham have fallen here only to enter into a broader life beyond the "smiling and the weeping." Men of high character, integrity, honor and courage. Men who lived in Texas when their services were needed for its upbuilding, advancement and perpetuity. I knew them well in life and revere their sacred memory in death. They have gone to their last, long earthly sleep and eternal reward. Their state has lost patriotic servants; their communities faithful workers and their homes devoted husbands and fathers. They have gone to join the innumerable hosts and rest beyond the years of eternity roll. To their loved ones here I offer deepest sympathy in the dark hour as "they pass under the rod. Bowen, Terrell and Gresham: They sleep the sleep of the just and stand with those who have come up through all the ages. The world was brighter, better and sweeter because of those noble spirits having come and gone. Blessed is immortality, glorious in the resurrection and the eternal faith that we shall all live again. For

"There is a hope, a blessed hope That Jesus Christ has given; A hope when days and years are past We all shall meet in Heaven." LEE J. ROUNTREE, Bryan, Texas.

BANKS CLOSED

Bryan banks will be closed Thursday, April 21, in observance of San Jacinto Day, a legal holiday.

CITY NATIONAL BANK, FIRST NATIONAL BANK, FIRST STATE BANK & TRUST CO.

BRAZOS COUNTY BOYS AND GIRLS CLUB DEPT.

Club Notes and Farm News by County Agent C. L. Beason

"Agriculture is the oldest of occupations and the basis of all other arts. All wealth comes originally from the soil and thus the farmer becomes the backbone of civilization." Club members at Hayes Consolidated school: J. D. Jones, potatoes, cotton, peanuts; Emory Jones, baby beef; T. H. Royder, pig; Forest Royder, pig; Orin Williams, pig, corn; Ross Williams, pig; Ama Williams, corn; Thadus Thomas, pig; Paul Boriskie, pig, corn; Hamey Spiller, pig; Eloise Smith, poultry; Milton Smith, pig, corn and potatoes.

Secretary of Agriculture Wallace says, "This Nation can not afford to permit the breaking down of its own agriculture, even if for a time we can buy food and other farm products cheaper from some one else. The sooner we get down to studying this whole national situation the better it is going to be for all of us. It is even more important to the industrial sections that our agriculture be put upon a thoroughly sound foundation than it is to the farmer themselves."

The Market Report, U. S. Department of Agriculture, April 16, states that six of the largest banks in Bolivar county, Mississippi, have served notice that the production of feed stuffs must receive attention if loans are to receive any consideration at the banks. It adds, "The customers of all the banks have been notified that no loan will be made after July 1, 1921, any part of which is to be used in buying feed stuffs. Customers are warned that those who do not grow sufficient feed for use on their plantations will have to borrow money, elsewhere. These banks state that over $1,000,000 was loaned to customers last year to buy feed of various kinds."

Just how much is loaned annually in Bryan is not known, but the remark was made Saturday that an average of three car loads of feed is being hauled out of Bryan daily. A tremendous leak that can and ought to be stopped! Look around our industrial barrel and you will find other leaks, if, indeed, the bung itself is not gone. Kansas City bacon, New Jersey sweet potatoes, Colorado beans and peas, New York peanut butter, Chicago milk, Georgia syrup, California peaches, Ohio corn and ketchup, Maryland tomatoes, all conspicuous in every Bryan grocery store, indicate that we are contributing liberally toward the high freight rates and the unnecessary middleman's profits. What would be the benefits if we would keep this money in Brazos county? Some club member may figure it out and make us a report on same.

The Brazos County Pure Bred Live Stock Association is taking on new members daily, and the future looks bright indeed. If interested in this important industry come to the meeting on the second Saturday in each month at 2 o'clock p.m.

The Bryan Hatchery adds another prize to the list already mentioned. This will be 15 baby chicks for the third best store of the trip to College last Saturday. Who will win?

All stories of the trip to College and to the poultry farm last Saturday must be turned in to the County Agent not later than next Saturday, April 23. Club members should not sign their names to the stories, but to a separate paper and attach this to the story.

Fannie Locke, poultry club member at Zack, belovine to the Tabor club, sends in the following report: "Out of 45 eggs, 33 were hatched February 17. To date 32 are alive. They are great big chicks and sleep by themselves at night, as the mother hen is back on the job of an egg per day. Chicks' ration is milo chops, wheat bran, meat scraps, and lots and lots of milk," and this reminded Fannie of the following joke: "Patron at Restaurant: 'Waiter, what is a milk fed chicken?' Waiter: 'Sir—er a milk fed chicken is one not weaned, sir.' (Good report Fannie. When those chickens are ripe let me know. I'm a Methodist. Enough said. B.)

BEWILDERING BATH SUITS AT GALVESTON

(From Tuesday's Daily)
Galveston, Texas, April 21.—Styles in bathing suits and costumes for 1921, as indicated by the displays of local shops catering to the beach trade are bewildering, both as regards cut and color. Women's garments in particular are a riot of color, while the lines are pronounced more 'daring' than ever. A favorite swimming suit for women, shown here this season for the first time, is of the one piece type and skitless. It has, however, an overgarment which is unbuttoned and discarded when the bather takes to the water. Another style much in vogue is the one piece suit with a diminutive skirt attached. These styles are to be had in almost any color or combination of colors desired. Beach costumes of knitted wool or silk with delicately tinted silk or rubberized capes and caps have made their appearance this year at prices which range from $50 to $200.

Men's suits are more on the utilitarian order, but colors are far from being drab. Indeed, some suits are on display which resemble a crazy quilt, the entire garment being made of a variety of patches in checkerboard design. These colorful suits, however, dealers pointed out, are purchasable only in medium sizes—ranging from 34's to 40's—as men whose waists are more portentious as their hair grows thinner, are content with unobtrusive suits of plain colors. So also are those masculine bathers whose appearance runs to the other extreme.

Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Jenkins returned last night from a two day's visit to Georgetown and Southwestern University their Alma Mater. Mrs. Jenkins has a sister, Miss Edith Lloyd attending Southwestern now.

Mrs. A. H. Birdson and baby, who have been in Bryan for several weeks on a visit with Mrs. Birdson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Lavender, departed today for Brownwood where they will make their home in future. Mr. Birdson has been in Brownwood for several weeks, having moved from their old home at Fort Worth, and his wife and baby will join him there.

"IS WONDERFUL" SAYS DISPATCHER

SINCE TAKING TANLAC HE EATS SLEEPS AND FEELS BETTER THAN IN TWO YEARS

"I eat better, sleep better and feel better than I have in two years and Tanlac gets the credit for building me up," said R. H. Budd, well-known train-dispatcher for the M. & T. Railroad, residing at 524 1-2 West Okmulgee St., Muskogee, Okla., recently.

"About two years ago I commenced going down hill, and then a year ago I was in such a low state of health that I had an operation. After this it seemed that I just couldn't get my normal weights and strength back. What little I ate bloated me all up with gas, keeping me uncomfortable for hours and did me very little, if any good. The bloating caused my heart to flutter frightfully, and my nerves were shattered so I couldn't get the sleep I needed. I felt weak, sluggish and tired all the time.

"But when I started on Tanlac I began to straighten right up. I'm not troubled with indigestion any more, have gained several pounds in weight and am built up in strength and vitality until I hardly feel like the same man. Tanlac has done fine work for me and I'm glad to tell others about it. My friends, who noticed how pale and weak I looked before taking Tanlac, can look at me no wonder see why it has put color in my face and built me up." Tanlac is sold in Bryan by N. A. Stewart and all leading druggists.
